

CALL FOR PAPERS

SLOVAK NATIONAL LIBRARY

in cooperation with the Association of Slovak Librarians have a pleasure to invite you to a three-day international conference, which will be held from 5 to 7 May 2015 in Martin entitled

The Birth And Roads of The Book

The conference will focus on research and documentation of book illustrations and graphic decorations, bookbinding, content and thematic focus of the books, history of book printing and bookbinding, publishing, bookstores, patronage, readership determination of published production, prenumeration, possessor's data and ownership relationships and other areas, which are associated with the birth and roads of the book and with the history of book culture.

The international conference will reflect the latest trends in research on History of the Book Culture. It also provides space to establish an international cooperation in research on History of the Book Culture, exchange of experts and lectures. The conference will welcome researchers from memory institutions, academies of science and universities, who are in their research projects focused also to the research of History of the Book Culture.

Conference languages: Slovak and English

Expenses associated with the conference will be covered by the sending organization.

Papers from the conference will be published in the reviewed study collection KNIHA.

We invite all of you, who are devoted to the research of the History of the Book Culture to this conference and we look forward to your participation. Please send your application with the title of your paper and brief abstract till 15th March 2015 to the address bellow.

Contact

Mgr. Erika Palágyiová

Odd. Spracovania starých tlačí

Slovenská národná knižnica

erika.palagyiova@snk.sk